

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

T.I.N.A. is an international platform which allows you to enter into contact with a network of galleries, exhibition spaces and curators who will value new artists in order to create exhibitions and initiate collaborations. T.I.N.A. is open to artists of all ages, nationalities, thoughts, mediums and any other qualification. The prize is open to artists of all levels.

There are currently three editions of T.I.N.A. in the cities of Barcelona, Berlin and Rome. Artists are eligible to subscribe for one, two or three cities, interacting with a jury of galleries divided by area and with our international team of curators. The basic subscription fee for one city is 35 euros. Subscription to additional cities is discounted by 55% (15 euro per city).

By subscribing to T.I.N.A. you will be in contact with the galleries in jury within each selected city. Each gallery will value the work of all subscribed artists, they will signal their favourites and will choose their selected winner, which they will then collaborate with to create his/her solo show. For each gallery there will be one winner.

The deadline for T.I.N.A. is fixed for the 31th October 2014 (except for deadline extensions). Before this date artists can subscribe and publish their portfolio to a personal profile page on our website. During this time subscribed artist are able to update and add new artworks to their personal profile page, view other artists' page and to check preferences towards their artworks by curators and galleries.

The exhibitions that each gallery will dedicate to their winning artists will be organised directly between gallery and artist under all aspects (date, duration, works, organization). The T.I.N.A staff will not intervene with the preparation of the exhibitions but will only vigilante on the following simple rules: the winning artist will be freely chosen by the gallery with the exception of artists with whom they are or have collaborated with beforehand; the gallery is forbidden to ask the artist for any economic contributions. The communication and diffusion of the exhibition are curated by each gallery according to their guidelines with the help of the T.I.N.A. staff. The artist is responsible for the cost of transport and insurance, unless other accords are made with the gallery.

The team of international curators and galleries in the jury are on the relevant sites of the three editions:

barcelona.tinaprize.com for the city of Barcelona;

berlin.tinaprize.com for the city of Berlin;

roma.tinaprize.com for the city of Rome.

On the same websites you can find the online subscription form.

By subscribing to the T.I.N.A. Prize you are automatically declaring you accept the terms and conditions. To allow the staff the right to publish and circulate images and texts inserted in your personal profile. To authorise the treatment of your personal information accordingly to privacy laws. (Decreto n°675/96 e n°196/2003).

Any request for help or assistance can be sent to our email address at info@tinaprize.com. Our staff will reply within a maximum of two working days.